FRASER, Rev R Douglas = Presbyterian Publications November 1918 - May 1919 (641)

November 28th, 1918

Rev. R. Douglas Fraser,

Toronto.

Dear Dr. Fraser:

I am indebted to you for the clipping that you sent to me with the letter from Mr. Fiddians, which I am returning herewith. It is very difficult to know what to say in reply. I suppose in so far as facts go the facts are correct, but the inferences or the suggestions from the facts all depend upon the point of view from which a man approaches the subject. As you will realize as well as I do it would be difficult to reply to such a letter without stating at length the whole condition of affairs, and I should think that at present it would be well to let sleeping dogs lie. They will not come up for another year in any case.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Fraser:

Many thanks for letting us see the letter from Mr. Wilson of Moose Jaw and the minutes of the convention which I have read with a great deal of interest. They certainly afford material that would be of value.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

February 24th, 1919

Rev. R. Douglas Fraser,

341 Church Street,

Toronto.

Dear Dr. Fraser:

I am sending you two letters which you might read. I wrote to Myers saying that it was out of the question for me to do extra work, I am so overwhelmed at present with what I have to attend to. I am to go on to Detroit to speak at the Convention in March, but I must return at once. I am very doubtful whether it would be possible to galvanize any life into the Canadian Branch, at least I cannot undertake to do it.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. Fraser:

I have had a request from the United States for details as to practical methods by which two Churches can federate. I am unable of course to give any special advice but if you can get me a copy of the plans for co-operation that were drawn up at our joint meeting with the Methodists and adopted by the Assembly I would send him one. I am not able to put my hands on one at the moment.

Yours sincerely,

President.
